

4. Extreme Reading Take a photo of yourself reading in an interesting/extreme place for our display. Be prepared to show and tell!

3. Poetry Read the selection of poems with your parents/carers. Choose one to practise so you can share it with the class.

2. Vocabulary and Spelling

From your reading book (or a book you are reading at home) identify 10 words that you don't understand and look them up using a dictionary. Write a sentence explaining what each word means and learn to spell it!

1. Character Factfile

From a book of your choice, create a character fact file giving as much information about that character as you can. You could include:

Name, nicknames, best friends, family members, their hobbies, what they are like as a character (naughty, funny, lazy etc), some interesting facts about the character.

5. Mars Information

Collect a sheet from your teacher about the planet Mars. Read the information and can you work out what the missing words are.

There is a word bank to help you.

6. Exploring authors

Year 3 Summer Homework Extreme Reading!

9. Design a cover For a book you are reading or have read, design a new front and back cover for the story. You will need to write a blurb for the back of the book explaining what the book is about.

You must complete at least one task each week and hand it in on a Wednesday. All written tasks must be presented neatly in your homework book. You may use the school laptops for ICT work and can borrow books from the school library for research.

7. Consistent Reading

Read your school reading book and record in your diary EVERY night for at least 2 weeks.

8. Research Project

For a topic of your choosing, do some research and create a poster giving us information that you can present to the class. It could be about your favourite animal, hobby, a place you've visited etc.

10. Surprise your teacher!

A homework task of your choice relating to your reading. This is your chance to really impress your teacher. You may only chose this option only ONCE this half term!
