

Task 1. Read a Viking myth and retell the story in your own words. You could tell it to an adult and get them to sign your homework book, create a story board or comic strip or even write it as a play script!

Task 16. Create a map showing where the Saxons or Vikings settled.

Task 15. Find out about Saxon/Viking clothes. Present your findings in an interesting way.

Task 14. Find out about weapons and armour. Present your findings in an interesting way.

Task 13. Imagine you are a Viking. Write a letter to a friend persuading them to come and invade Britain.

Task 12. Imagine you are a Viking King. Write down the laws of your land the people have to stick to (Researching Danelaw might help you with this!)

Task 2. Design an illuminated letter for your first initial.

Task 3. Research a Saxon King e.g. Athelstan or Viking leader e.g. Cnut or Gunthrum. Write a fact file or biography about them.

Task 4. Design a Saxon/Viking settlement. Create an estate agents leaflet about it. Make sure you include its name, a picture and a description.

Task 5. Write a poem about a pagan god.

Task 6. Make a model of a Saxon or Viking house. Write a short description to go with it explaining what it is.

Task 7. Imagine you are a Christian Monk. Write a diary entry for the Anglo Saxon Chronicle about a normal day or about a Viking raid.

Task 8. Make a model or draw a picture of a Viking longboat. Write a short description to go with it explaining what it is.

Task 9. Research food eaten by the Saxons/Vikings. Write a set of instructions for a recipe or create a menu for a meal.
