

For the parents, carers and school community of Pixmore Junior School

New Term

Welcome back everyone. As we began this new term at Pixmore, we had to adapt once again to a different way of learning and working, which I know has been challenging at times. On behalf of all the governors here at Pixmore, I would like to thank the parents and carers who are working so hard with their children on remote education and praise the pupils for all the effort they are putting into their learning. I know some families have found things particularly challenging and I would like to thank everyone for keeping their children safely at home and providing the love and understanding that they need at this time. I would also like to acknowledge all the incredible work the teachers and staff have put in to producing engaging resources, videos, and lessons, all whilst still teaching the pupils who remain in school.

Hopefully, it won't be too long before all the children will be able to return to the classroom, but until then I know that the Pixmore community is as strong as ever. In the meantime, keep logging those kilometres for our circumnavigation challenge and hopefully we can get to "visit" and learn about some amazing places along our journey around the world!

Caroline Nicholson (Chair)

Congratulations!

One of our favourite tasks as governors each year, is when we get to be involved in judging the annual school writing project. This year the work the pupils produced, inspired by the book 'Winter's Child' by Angela McAllister, was absolutely amazing and everyone should be very proud of all the effort they put into their pieces of writing. It was especially hard for us governors to pick the winners this year as the work we saw was of such a high standard. Well done to everyone who was short listed to win best writer and well done to the winners and runners up who were as follows:

	Winners	Runners Up
Y3	Beth C	Saffron O'KD
Y4	Shanique M	Jasper A
Y5	Claudia B	Tharuki Y
Y6	Bibi N	Isabella B

I would also like to celebrate to all those who also received a Progress Award, Endeavour Award, or Special Recognition Award. Congratulations to all of you and massive thank you to Mrs Inman for once again running such a wonderful writing project.

If you would like to find out more about becoming a governor or would get in contact with myself as the chair of governors, then please email governors@pixmore.herts.sch.uk.
