LO: To orally rehearse sentences
with expanded noun phrases.

Today we are going to find out what our book is about...

But I'm not just going to tell you! First we will have some clues.
I will reveal one clue at a time.

In your table groups you have one piece of paper.

You can write your guess down on it but you can only submit one answer. When you're ready to submit one person bring it to me.

If you get it correct after the first answer you'll each get 3HP and 3 GT

Second = 2HP and 2 GT

Third = 2 HP and 1 GT

Fourth = 1HP and 2 GT

Fifth = 2GT

Sixth = 1HP

Seventh and eighth = 1GT

Clue 1

“Such a black tongue!” sighed the ladies.

Clue 2

He told her stories of a hot land far away where grass grows tall and acacias taste sweet.

Clue 3

“What a handsome creature!” exclaimed one gentleman.

Clue 4

Ladies in the crowd tries to count her spots.

Clue 5

When they saw her they thought she was a strange but amazing creature.

Clue 6

People came from miles around to see her.

Clue 7

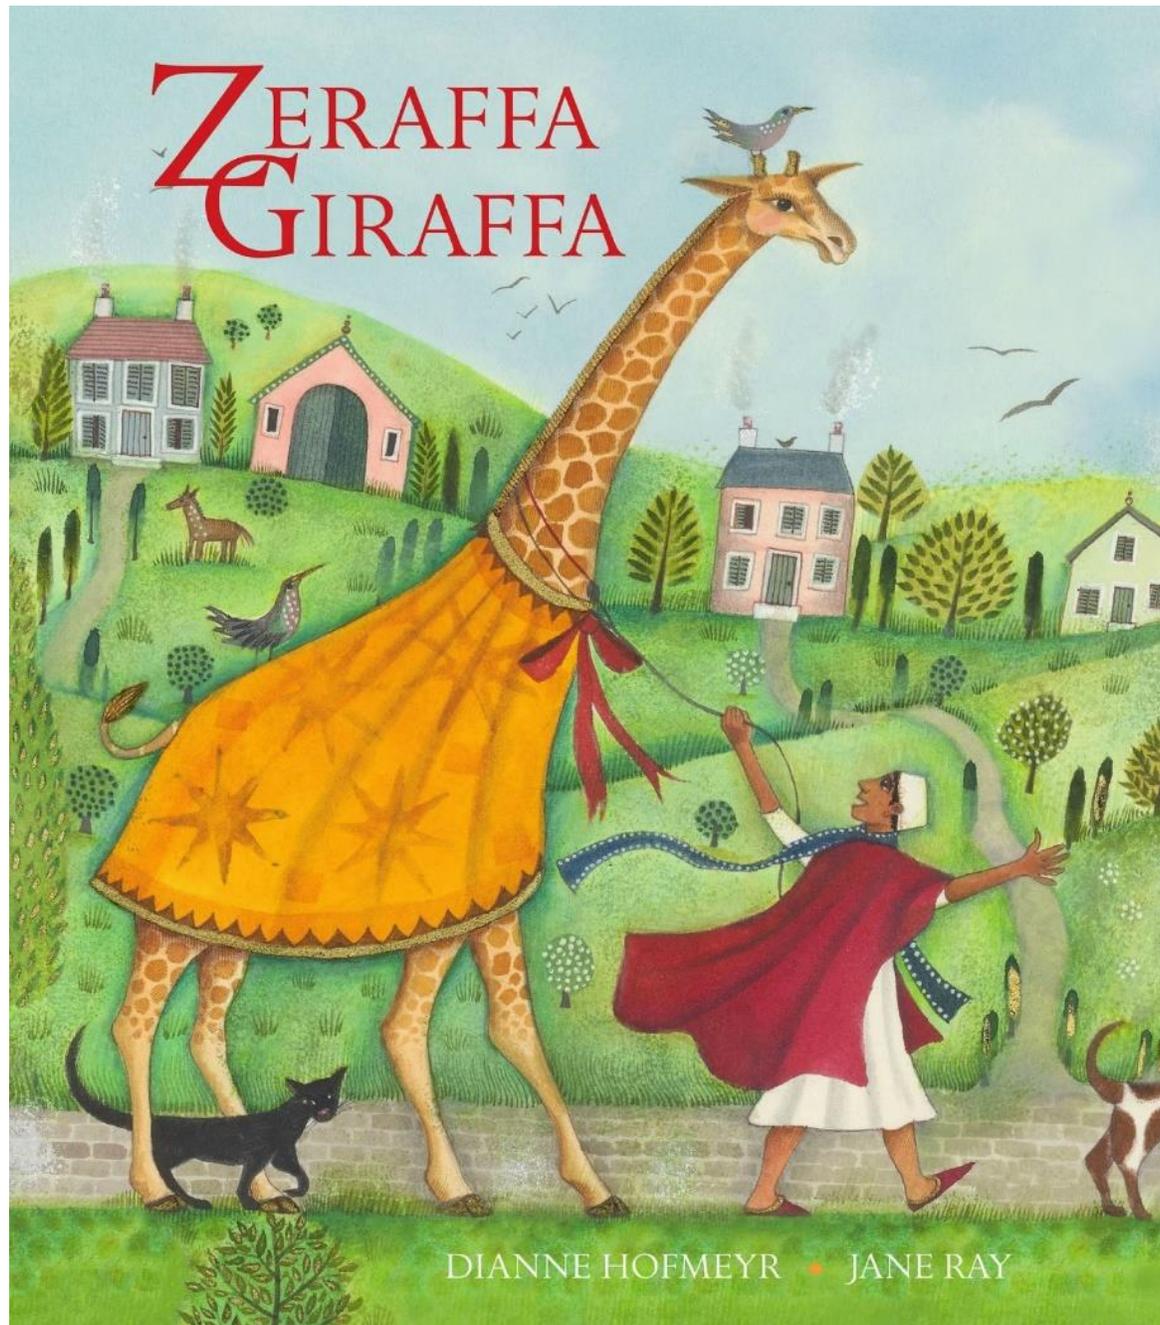

She has chocolate-brown eyes and long elegant lashes.

Clue 8

A beautiful long-necked creature.

Our book is about....

ZERAFFA GIRAFFA

DIANNE HOFMEYR • JANE RAY

We are going to read up to a party scene

The news had spread across the whole country so by the time Zeraffa was approaching Paris and everyone was preparing for the arrival of the magnificent beast.

How might they get a city ready? What might they need to do?

(Think back to some picture we looked at)

Let's read the next part from the book.

How did the people get ready for the arrival?

The book uses only simple sentences to describe how the people got ready.

How could we improve these? Could we create some more interesting sentences using expanded noun phrases?

- The crisp clean bakers with...
- The flamboyant hairdressers with...
- The hard-working gardeners with...
- The dressmakers with...
- The hatters with...
- The dogs with...
